Bury the dead.

The Holy One buried the dead; you should bury the dead. The Holy One comforted those who mourned; you should comfort those who mourned.

As the Holy One is loving, you too must be loving.

Adonai is faithful in all His ways, and loving in all His deeds.

Adonai is compassionate, you too must be gracious and compassionate.

Fighting injustice, forgetting iniquity, transgression, and sin.

Boundless in kindness and faithfulness, assuring love for a world of righteousness—gracious and compassionate, patient.

To walk in all His ways is the duty of the Holy One. The wise follow Adonai. All the words of Adonai are true (Proverbs 31:26).

Note: The text appears to be a passage from the Talmud, specifically from the tractate of Sotah, page 14a.

May God's Name be blessed. God loves charity and justice; the earth is filled with Adonai's lovingkindness (Psalm 33:5).

Rabbi Eliezer said: Whoever does deeds of charity and justice is considered as helping the world with lovingkindness, as it is written: And Adonai, God, is lovingkindness and truth, and fairness and justice, and merciful and gracious (Deuteronomy 32:4).

Rabbi Eliezer quoted this verse: "She opens her mouth with lovingkindness, and the Torah of Adonai is her tongue." (Psalm 48:44).

In the preliminary prayers (Preliminary Prayers, page 69).