From past participants:

“I found the class and Rabbi Plavin to be warm and inviting to new-comers as well as patient and kind. I found him to be extremely tolerant and accepting of people and their beliefs. Through this class I found myself falling in love with Judaism.”

“I found The Basic Judaism class with Rabbi Plavin to be very informative and easy to follow. I particularly enjoyed the way he pulled our class together like the new family we were beginning to form.”

“As someone who grew up in a Jewish household and having gone to Jewish day school, I found this to be a very refreshing and beneficial course; helping me reconnect with a lot of things I learned growing up that may have fallen to the back of my memory.”

“Thank you so much for facilitating this wonderful class....It was truly a once-in-a-lifetime learning experience. ..I couldn't have asked for a better teacher or better introduction to this religion I have chosen!”

“Observing Mitzvot (commandments) is the primary way Jews live a religious life. We express our search for God and our quest to live in holiness through the observance of Mitzvot. The Mitzvot inspire us by focusing our thoughts and elevating our feelings: they guide us toward behavior imbued with certain values and goals. The observance of Mitzvot shapes our actions and sanctifies our behavior. We make ourselves open to the spirit through the act of fulfilling Mitzvot.”

-Rabbi Pamela Barmash

The study of Mitzvot is the major focus of
